

Quality Policy

Issue Number: 3
Date of Last Review: 5th March 2025
Authorised by: Carl Weaver – Chief Operating Officer

The Company is committed to the highest standards in delivery of independent chartered surveying and specialist land property services to both public and private sector clients. We listen to our clients, continually reviewing our processes of service realisation in line with business needs, maximizing the efficiency of our resource management system.

Ardent Management Ltd have assessed its Context and the relationship of Interested Parties. The company are committed to meeting the requirements of all applicable Interested Parties. With the strategic goal of consistent business growth.

The company have defined Objectives to assist the process of achieving its strategic goal. These will be regularly monitored and reviewed.

Key to achieving its strategic goal is adherence to all relevant statutory and regulatory requirements. The company are committed to this goal.

The company continue to invest in processes to improve its performance and profitability. An essential part of this is the development and improvement of its Business Management System.

Print: Carl Weaver

Position: Chief Operating Officer

Date of Issue: 04/01/2023